OHIO COUNTY UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Senate. GEORGE B. JOHNSON, of Hancock For House of Delegates ARCHIBALD W. CAMPBELL, Esq. HON, CHESTER D. HUBBARD, WILLIAM NORTH, Esq. For [County : Superintendent of Schools DANIEL J. McDAID.

WH shall be greatly obliged to our friends throughout the State for the tude and energy. The Virginia earliest returns of the election to take Legislature will be constrained to act place Thursday. Will some friend at at once. By the time our own Legislaeach county seat give us the result in ture meets, or certainly before it adhis county for Legislature, as soon as it journs, it will be officially requested to his county for Legislature, as sold lake a steps for an adjustment of the known? In this way our readers will take a steps for an adjustment of the be favored as well as ourselves. Give debt. When we remind our readers us the figures for Legislature by telegraph where practicable.

The Board of Registration will hold a special meeting to-day. We understand a part of the business to be transacted will be a final correction of the this on West Virginia; that Virginia's lists before the election, thus affording an opportunity for persons who may not hitherto have had one, to reglater or get transferred to the proper this vast indebtedness will all be intersome Republicans who are not yet registered in the township where they will agree with us that this is a matter of enough moment to overlive. They ought not to let this opportunity pass, for if they do they are disfranchised by their own consent. They may feel to-day as if they don't care that immense debt has to be paid by this State, must be paid by the property whether they vote or not. They may feel differently Thursday; but unless of the State—by houses and lots, lands, money and stocks. Ohlo county holds they register to-day they cannot vote then. The Board meets at 10 this morning. Be on hand and secure the right dread and auffer, therefore, from the

THE Register in its conduct of the canvass in this county has chosen to make a single issue. It has done this as a matter of choice, because the editor dictated the resolution of the Convention which it parades as its declaration of principles. Thus far it has not departed from the single "demand" set this, effecting no reduction of the forth in that resolution. It proceeds on principal, would have to be kept the assumption that there is to be but up every year. Now, we are firmone question before the next Legisla-ture in which the people of this county have any stake. We desire that the issue thus made to overshadow all others may be clearly understood.

The Register will not wait for the removal of the constitutional restrictions on suffrage by lawful means. It proposes to get rid of them at once by re-pealing all the laws by which they can be enforced. It cannot be needful to argue at any length against such a step. The fact that nothing is pro-posed to take the place of those laws shows what is designed. Our people understand very well that a registry of voters is authorized in our Constitution: that such a registry fairly made is an excellent regulation for guarding the parity of the ballot-hox. They understand, too, that while our Constitution holds a provision forbidding a class of citizeus to vote, there must be suitable legislation to make that provision effective, or the Constitution will simply be set at defiance. They know, too, that no more efficient method of carrying out that provision has yet been devised than a registry of the qualified voters; and therefore it becomes them, before tearing that down, to ask what we are and his Recons Operations the Democratic Market.

The last number of the Clarkaburg Telegraph, the monthlytee of Mr. Can and peaceful the one of the contains the following by way of reply to the charges preferred against him by the Democratic State organ:

The wheeling Replace has stated and very long if honeathy enforced. The people may safely be trusted to find out their oppreasions and apply the remedy. But if the Legislature whould assume the power to disregard and edit and constitutional law without wait; to for its abrogation, precisely the reasons would authorize every to disregard and defy any statute which he found distasteful or adto his interests. Of course the wervative sense of the communication of collegence to constitution of colle to have in place of it. If we are to have nothing, no one can consent to the overday to commend to the people of this county. It asks our people to send a delegation to the Legislature pledged to disregard the obligation that is saored upon every member of society-to obey the law while it is the law-a pledge which the delegation could the proposition? If he did not it was not fulfill without a plain violation of their oaths to support the Con-stitution of the State. Happily the own signature. THE position of the Wheeling Register and of the Democratic Convention, that the repeal of the registry law and test oaths is the only issue in the com-ing election worth the attention of this community, is one we cannot concur in. there are other matters to come before the next Legislature which concern the people of Ohio county much more deeply than this. Every doubt that Virginia will resume her full place in the Union very early this winter has been removed. She may do so before the Legislature we are about to elect will assemble. The Virginia Legislature will meet at once; and one of the very first things to engage its attention will be a settlement between the two Virginias. There is a large accumulation of interest, for which the creditors will push with promptitude and energy. The Virginia concerned. that the whole debt cannot now be far from fifty millions and cannot possibly be reduced below thirty millions-

What the President Thinks of It.

In this connection it is proper to add that the rumors regarding President Grant's intention to disregard the mandates of the Courts are proved to be false by the fact that it has been in his power to execute Yerger's sentence at any time since it was forwarded for approval. Instead of doing so, however, he has anxiously courted the intervention of the judiciary, for the purpose of being governed in his actions by the highest authority which could possibly be interested in the case. It is, therefore, probable that, in due course of time, Yerger will be turned over to the civil authorities for trial.

over to the civil authorities for trial.

Sinden and Bangerons Hiness of Thos.

Ewing, Sr.

Hon. Thomas Ewing, Sr., of Ohlo, was taken with a fainting fit, while engaged in an argument before the Supreme Court to-day, and is supposed to be dying. He was engaged in case with Judge Curtis, of Boston, and a lawyer of this district opposed to him, and there was much excitement regarding it among all interested. Mr. Ewing was kept listening attentively for two or three hours, and when the time came for him to speak he began with great energy. The Court and whole bar were paying close attention, and the remark was made by several that he was speaking with much of his former power. As he proceeded he became brilliant, and the attention of all in the room was fixed upon him. Suddenly he complained of fatigue, and asked permission of the Court to sit during the rest of his argument. Taking his seat he continued for a few moments when he became confused, and involved in his speech, and his associates reached him just in time to prevent his failing to the door. He almost immediately recovered and left the room for a short time, when he returned and sitempted to go on, speaking from his seat. He again began to talk incoherently, and this time fell into the arms of those who approached him. At first he seemed to be dead. The members of the Court at once left the bench. He was laid in the middle of the room on a bed of cushions, and his family, friends and physician sent for. His sons with two daughters soon arrived, and shortly after General Sherman and his wife. Several surgeons were soon on the spot, and vigorous means were taken to restore him. After a considerable interval his pulse returned, and in the course of, an hour he was conscious. Toward evening he was able to be carried across the hall to the reception room of the Supreme Court, but his physician swould not onesent to an attempt to take him from the bailding. At this writing (8 P. M.) It is not supposed he can live through the night.

Later.—Contrary to the ex ested in making us responsible for as much of the debt as they can, they shadow every other consideration in this canvass. Whatever share of more taxable wealth than any other county in the State. She has more to pressure of taxation that must ensue if assume five millions of the debt the bare interest on it will equal the money now raised by taxation for State ly persuaded an equitable adjust-ment between the two States would and constantly growing debt; and for such an adjustment we must fight unitedly and manfully. It is our only salvation from bankruptcy of the State. And therefore it is a matter of supreme moment, one we could not unduly magnify if we tried, that every step our Legislature takes in this matter, be taken with the soundest discretion and with a clear perception of what it will lead to. We must commit this matter to our very bostmen. They must have a knowledge of all the steps that have been taken here since 1861 so as to fully unof his physicians, Mr. Ewing began to revive about seven o'clock, and at nine is believed to be out of present danger. The attack was congestion of the heart. He is now entirely conscions. Members of his own family, General Sherman and family, with a number of the most prominent members of the bor prominent members of the bor the Supreme Court, are still at the Capliol with him, and will remain through the night. derstand the bases of such a settlemen as West Virginia will demand; they must be men of mental force, of practical business discernment, and of moral firmness to resist the arguments too often used to influence action where great interests are at stake. Expensive Democracy.

The Republican Committee of Maryland have published a statement of financial affairs in that State since 1850. It shows that under Republican rule expenditures from 1861 to 1866 inclusive with bountles and all other expenses of the war, were less than thirteen millions, while the first Legislature after the war, which was wholly Democratic, spent in two years over twelve millions. The Committee present official figures to prove their statements, and then call attention to the fact that Maryland is now the only State in the Union that is under exclusive Democratic control. We shall expect, however to see the under exclusive Democratic contro and there is not a Constable or Count Commissioner, not a member of the Legislature or a City Commissioner, in any section of the State, who is not a radical Democrat.

To Coal Consumers and Persons who Purchase Coal to Sell Again.
Thire UNDERSIGNED HEREBY GIVES
1 house that he is prepared to sell a good article of Coal at the lowest rates for cash.
From the central position of his bank he feels warranted in saying that in winter when other banks are unreliable from the condition of the roads &c., he will take care his customer's supply is kept up. He further adds that the Coal now being taken from his bank is better than any heretofore taken from it. RICHARD NOLAN, Octal Markot St., head of Jefferson.
